Proposed visit: February/March 2022, exact dates TBD

Discussion:

Hawai'i Triennial 2022 (HT22) will be framed around the fluid concept of Pacific Century - E Ho'omau no Moananuiākea, interweaving themes of history, place, and identity within the context of Hawai'i's unique location at the confluence of Asia-Pacific and Oceania. HT22's 43 artists and collectives feature over 60 participants including internationally renowned cultural figures exhibiting alongside multiple generations of Hawai'i-based artists, as well as others making their U.S. institutional debut. For more information:

Artists will receive 100% of proceeds from the sale of their works.

2. Fire and Fiber Downtown Art Center, Honolulu, HI, mixed media, juried.
Exhibition dates: June 8 – June 26, 2022

Proposed visit: June 8, 2022, exact date TBD

Discussion:

“The 2022 Fiber Hawaii exhibit is titled “Fire and Fiber” because it will be a joint exhibit with selected work created in the 2022 Raku Ho’olaulea beach firing. Raku firing involves pulling pots out of a hot kiln and submersing them in combustible leaves or paper which creates a fire and causes the unglazed clay to burn black. This promises to be an exciting combination of two mediums in one space.

The juror for Fiber Hawaii 2022 will be well known fashion designer and creative consultant, Amos Kotomori. He studied both ceramics and textile design at the University of Hawaii and has a master’s degree in Allied Arts and Education from the University of Oregon
The juror for Raku Ho’olaulea is Sue Emerson, a ceramic artist from British Columbia, Canada.
