

2023 Young Artists of Hawai'i Art Exhibition Official Guide

Gravitas Pasifika

Young Artists of Hawai'i is an annual student art competition and exhibition that recognizes creative excellence among Hawaii's public and private school students in grades kindergarten through seventh grade. This exhibit is presented by the Hawai'i State Foundation on Culture and the Arts, the Hawai'i Tourism Authority, and Gravitas Pasifika. The program provides opportunities for students to participate in a juried art competition. A panel of distinguished judges select 96 works for exhibition from school submissions.

The mission of the Hawai'i State Foundation on Culture and the Arts (SFCA) is to promote, perpetuate, preserve and encourage culture and the arts as central to the quality of life of the people of Hawai'i. SFCA funding is provided by the State of Hawai'i and the National Endowment for the Arts.

The 2023 Young Artists of Hawai'i Art Exhibition will be on display at the Hawai'i State Art Museum (HiSAM) from Saturday May 20, 2023 through Saturday June 17, 2023.

The Hawai'i Convention Center (HCC) showcases commissioned works by some of Hawaii's most distinguished artists. Along with this, a prominent courtyard area has been designed to exhibit student artwork from Hawai'i's schools. Thousands of visitors who come to the HCC will be able to view our islands, people, and culture through the eyes of our students' artwork.

A replica of the 2023 Young Artists of Hawai'i Art Exhibition will be on display from June 2023 through March 2024 in the Pa Kamali'i Courtyard on the third floor of the HCC.

THEME

"What does it look like when leaders get others involved to make a positive change?"

This year's theme builds on the 2022 competition's theme of "What does good leadership look like?" by exploring the actions of others, both great and small, and how they better our lives. What are the things that our leaders and community members doing to enact positive change? What are the things that schools, organizations, or businesses in your neighborhoods doing that make our island and global home better? What do you want to see? Through the incorporation of suggested classroom discussions and literature, students will be able to submit a piece of artwork to the 2023 Young Artists of Hawai'i competition that captures these discoveries pertaining to these questions.

Connecting Language Arts to Visual Arts

We invite teachers to begin by creating a language-rich environment around the theme. Discuss what good leadership looks like to each student. Use chart paper to transcribe students' thoughts with mind mapping exercises. Read a book about a leader who made a positive impact. Discuss why communities need good leaders. Have students identify the characteristics of a good leader and who they identify as good leaders. Talk about how someone becomes a good leader and that all of us have the makings of a good leader.

Our Young Artists of Hawai'i Spokesperson

This year, we're happy to announce that we're teaming up with a spokesperson to help us engage our students in the theme and their artistic expression of the theme. Please join us in welcoming back this year's spokesperson, Taran Chun, Ed.D.

In June of 2017, Dr. Chun was selected as po'o kula (head of school) for Kamehameha Kapālama. Prior to returning to his alma mater, the 1995 KS Kapālama graduate served as principal of Mountain View High School in Orem, Utah.

Over the course of his educational career, Chun was also lead consultant for Mana Charter School in West Valley, Utah, and served as principal at Granite Park Junior High. Additionally, he served as a trustee for Utah Valley University and as an adjunct professor University of Utah and Argosy University.

The Wahiawā native attended Brigham Young University in Provo, Utah, and earned a BS in physical education pedagogy, K-12 and a M.Ed. in educational leadership prior to receiving an Ed.D. in educational leadership and policy at the University of Utah. He and his wife Nizhoni have five children.
