

COMMUNITY MURAL

MAKE YOUR MARK STATE CAPITOL POOLS PROJECT

Artist Solomon Enos invites the public to add a dot of paint to the community mural that will become the new Hawai'i State Capitol waterless pool artwork, like "adding your drop of water to an ocean." Monday - Saturday 9 am - 12 p.m. and 1:00 - 4:15 p.m. Capitol Modern (Hawai'i State Art Museum), 250 South Hotel St. in downtown Honolulu, near 'Iolani Palace. Through November 30 (museum closed November 28 for Thanksgiving holiday).

School groups welcome! Contact Shirley Lam at info@CapitolModern.org or 808-586-0778 to organize a large group visit. Making a special trip? Check with Rodney Acosta, Museum Visitor Services, at 808-586-9959 before heading over.
