TAKUMI IN EVERY DETAIL

Lexus Hawaii supports the Hawai'i Regional Scholastic Art Awards, celebrating young artists whose creativity and craftsmanship reflect the spirit of Takumi mastery.

Rooted in the Takumi tradition, Lexus artisans dedicate over 60,000 hours to their craft, guided by patience, precision, and purpose.

Across Hawai'i, student artists are doing the same, telling stories of place, culture, and care. Lexus Hawaii is honored to support the next generation of artists who carry this shared commitment.

THE HAWAII STATE FOUNDATION ON CULTURE AND ARTS

The State Foundation on Culture and the Arts was established by the Hawai'i State Legislature in 1965 as the official arts agency of the State of Hawai'i. The concept of setting aside 1% of construction appropriations to provide a funding base for the acquisition of works of art set a national standard in 1967 when Hawai'i became the first state to pass such legislation. The 1989 revision of the law created the Works of Art Special Fund, a non-lapsing account into which all funds set aside for artworks are deposited and from which expenditures for purposes consistent with Section 103-8.5, Hawai'i Revised Statutes, are made.

Objectives of the Art in Public Places Program are to enhance the environmental quality of public buildings and spaces throughout the state for the enjoyment and enrichment of the public; to cultivate the public's awareness of visual arts in all media, styles, and techniques; to contribute to the development and recognition of a professional artistic community; and to acquire, interpret, preserve, and display works of art expressive of the Hawai'i an Islands, the multicultural heritage of its people and creative interests of its people and creative interests of its artists.

ALOHA MAI KĀKOU

The Hawai'i State Foundation on Culture and the Arts is once again honored to act as the Hawai'i regional affiliate for the prestigious Scholastic Art and Writing Awards. This national student art competition has been a platform for young creatives across the country since 1923 and we cannot begin to express our gratitude to have this opportunity to host the best of this year's award-winning submissions from Hawai'i students here at Capitol Modern: The Hawai'i State Art Museum. This annual competition features over 17 categories of art created by our own student artists in grades 7 through 12 from public, private, and home school institutions. The best award-winning works of art are then honored and displayed as part of what has become the largest adjudicated art exhibition in the islands. In times of unprecedented change and uncertainty, we are so grateful for these young creatives to remind us all of what we have to hope for. The beauty they have shared with us over the course of our Scholastic programming has truly moved our competition judges and they are sure to move you as well. We hope to honor this honesty and authenticity by continuing to provide the Hawai'i regional competition to our local schools. Mahalo to our staff, commissioners, volunteers, and representatives for their continued support of the arts in Hawai'i. We would also like to extend our aloha to all of our student artists and their amazing teachers who participated in this year's Hawai'i regional Scholastic competition and for collectively submitting over 2,500 individual works of art for adjudication. We are so thankful for your voices and for the guidance of your mentors. Congratulations for your regional awards and accolades!

Brandon Ng

Brandon Ng received his BFA from the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa and his MFA from Arizona State University. Ng's work investigates the intersections between place, persona, and positionality. His photographic and installation works deconstruct historical narratives to examine ideas concerning hybridity and the unlearning of imperialist methods that impact Hawai'i and its people. Being a product of settler colonialism in Hawai'i, Ng is partial to policies that affect Oceania's contemporary social and cultural issues and their overlap with the United States. His work has been exhibited throughout the continental US and the Hawaiian Islands. Ng currently lives and works in Honolulu, Kona, O'ahu, Hawai'i.

Edwin Ushiro

Edwin Ushiro was born and raised on Maui and moved to California where he earned a BFA with Honors in Illustration from Art Center College of Design. His work interweaves nostalgia from his childhood in Hawaii, history, Hawaiian beliefs and oral traditions, and the uncanny obake tales of his Japanese heritage. Edwin's work has exhibited in the Grand Palais in France, the Villa Bottini in Italy, the Japanese American National Museum, the Honolulu Museum of Art, the Capitol Modern and the Bishop Museum. His monograph is published by Zero+ Publishing and is entitled, "Gathering Whispers."

Hannah Shun

Hannah Shun is a visual and teaching artist specializing in metalwork. She studied art at California College of the Arts and has received several awards. Her work has been exhibited in galleries throughout Hawai'i, Korea, and Canada.

Jonathan Yukio Clark

Jonathan Yukio Clark, Schaefer International Gallery Director, was born and raised on the island of Maui and has been a member of the MACC's Gallery Team since 2019. First entering in the role of Exhibits Coordinator, then as Assistant Director, he now oversees the Schaefer International Gallery's exhibits programs and curation as Director, which average five exhibits per calendar year, ranging from local to international in scope. He serves on the board of Hawai'i Museums Association as Vice President. He received a BFA in painting from Washington University in St. Louis and an MFA in studio art from New York University, in addition to being a research student in printmaking at Kyoto Seika University. He is a multi-disciplinary artist working in sculpture, painting, printmaking, textile, and drawing, and has exhibited at venues in New York and Hawai'i, with his work included in the Art in Public Places Collection of the Hawai'i State Foundation on Culture and the Arts.

Kahi Ching

Kahi Ching is a Native Hawaiian contemporary artist whose work spans artistic disciplines, from drawing and painting to sculpture and horticulture. He is known for his practice of 'umeke lā'au, which brings together traditional Japanese bonsai and Chinese penjing techniques with Kanaka 'ike lā'au (plant knowledge). This practice informs his relationship with all natural materials, including stone and wood, sculpting each with sensitivity to the 'uhane (spirit) within. He has completed numerous public commissions across the Hawaiian Islands, including a mural project for the Honolulu Mayor's Office on Culture and the Arts. His work has been collected by the Hawai'i State Foundation on Culture and the Arts, amongst numerous other significant private collections. Recent group exhibitions include Thinking Historically in the Present, Sharjah Biennial 15 (2023); 'Ai Pōhaku, Stone Eaters, Commons Gallery, University of Hawai'i at Mānoa (2023); the 30th Annual Hawai'i Woodshow (2022); and Aloha Nō, Hawai'i Triennial 2025.

Laura Smith

Laura Smith is well known in the islands for her relief prints, which join technical skill and visually expressive subject matter. She has always been intrigued by printmaking because of its flexibility and opportunity to make more than one. Her images are built up of layers of colors printed from cherry plywood. Her current interest is in narrative woodcuts about swimming and in the role of trees in our lives. In addition to producing expressive and colorful woodcuts, she was the Executive Director of the Honolulu Printmakers and was one of the co-founders of the Honolulu Printmaking Workshop. She was the recipient of the prestigious Cox award from the Honolulu Academy of Arts. Her works are in the collections of the Honolulu Academy of Arts, The Contemporary Museum and the Hawaii State Foundation on Culture and the Arts.

Reise Kochi

Reise Kochi is a stylist, creative producer, and Honolulu-born fashion professional. Born and raised on O'ahu, he is a 2010 graduate of the Honolulu Community College Fashion Technology program, where he now serves as a lecturer for several courses. He is passionate about collaborating with local designers and artists—whether producing fashion shows, creating original pieces, or supporting one-of-a-kind creative projects. Reise brings a deep commitment to Hawai'i's creative community and continues to cultivate spaces that highlight emerging and established talent alike.

Solario

Solario is an independent illustrator based in Waikīkī whose work draws on Hawai'i's cultural, historical, and architectural landscapes. Inspired by 20th-century design, he creates nostalgic, period-inflected imagery that highlights overlooked facets of island life and reflects the stories embedded in Hawai'i's past.

Solomon Robert Nui Enos

Solomon Robert Nui Enos is a Native Hawaiian artist, illustrator and visionary. Born and raised in O'ahu's Makaha Valley, Solomon has been making art for more than 30 years in a variety of media, including oil paintings, book illustrations, outdoor murals and mixed-media sculptures. His work touches on themes of ancestry and identity, the human relationship with the Earth, and the future of Hawai'i, its people, and its resources.

Terry Savage

Terry Savage's work in glass and other media has been exhibited in numerous Honolulu venues including Nohea Gallery, Downtown Art Center, Honolulu Museum of Arts, Cedar Street Galleries, Louis Pohl Gallery, Gallery 'Iolani, and Queen Emma Gallery. His grants and awards include fellowships from the Laila Twigg-Smith Art Fund of Hawaii Community Foundation and the New Jersey State Council on the Arts. His work has been purchased at auctions of Donkey Mill Art Center, Pilchuck Glass School, Hawaii Humane Society, Windward Community College and Always Dream Foundation. Savage's work is in several public and private collections, including the Hawaii State Foundation on Culture and the Arts. Savage earned an MPA from New York University and a B. Ed in arts education from the University of Hawaii. He was born in Paterson, NJ and currently resides in Kailua, HI where he works primarily in fused glass.
